1A & 2A

Move Well, Move Often – an inclusive approach to Physical Literacy

Catherine Knight and Ciara Delaney

PDST PE Team

This resource has been developed to support schools in adopting an inclusive approach to Physical Education and the development of Fundamental Movement Skills. This workshop will explore strategies and modifications that can be adopted to ensure activities are meaningfully inclusive of children of all abilities.

3A & 4A

Oodles of Noodles For Everyone

Claire Heffernan

St. Michael's School, Holy Angels, Glenmaroon, Chapelizod & St. Vincent's Special School, Navan rd, Dublin

Our Oodles of Noodles For Everyone is a practical workshop with lots of different PE and Physical Activities and games that can be done using pool noodles across all of the PE curriculum strands. Pool noodles can also provide a huge range of creative and unique activities that can used to develop FMS and can also be easily adapted to allow for differentiation for all students. Pool noodles are a practical, playful and fun way to add a different dimension to your PE lessons and physical activities.

1B & 2B

VOICE-PE: Listening and Responding to Children's Voices

Ciara Jennings, Missy Parker, Deirdre Ní Chróinín

VOICE PE Team

Listening and responding to children's voices in physical education empowers children to make decisions that influence what and how they learn. Participants will engage in teacher-tested practical activities illustrating how to promote a) voice, b) choice, c) self-direction, and 4) co-construction of activities. VOICE-PE is an Irish Research Council funded collaboration with IPPEA.

3B & 4B

Student Voice and Meaningful PE

Grace Cardiff

Kilmore National School, Wexford, & Mary Immaculate College, Limerick

Within this practical workshop, participants will partake in a range of activities using strategies to make PE more democratic (voice and choice) and to personalise PE (goal setting and reflection). The strategies shared are ones which Grace has used successfully with her own class and will be useful for all age groups.

1C & 2C

European School Sports Day – Minimal Equipment and Maximum Fun

Jason Byrne and Peter Lavin

IPPEA

This workshop will promote numerous fun activities for any sports day, concentrating on how to use minimal equipment to get the maximum fun on a Sports Day. It will also give strategies on how to ensure there is fair play and sportsmanship when having a Sports Day.

3C & 4C

Tug of War Old Tradition, New Life

Con and Niamh Hayes

Tug of War Ireland

Breathing new life into the old and traditional challenge. Our Tug of War workshop demonstrates the many advantages that the sport has to offer with special focus on it being an all-inclusive sport for all abilities. We demonstrate the sport in a novel, fun way that engages children and people of all ages.

1D & 2D

Practical and playful ideas for The Daily Mile

Jack Scannell

Ard Rí Community National School

This workshop will focus on providing teachers with practical and playful ideas for The Daily Mile to promote enjoyable and engaging experiences for all children when running the initiative with their class. Central to the workshop is the incorporation of the child's voice into The Daily Mile.

3D & 4D

Frisbee Fun and Frolics

Lauren O'Murray

Cellbridge Community School

This workshop will focus on activities suitable within the Games Strand of the Primary PE Curriculum. Frisbee examples will be demonstrated, however, many of these activities will be transferable to other invasion games. As well as decision making and teamwork, this strand allows for development of Fundamental Movement Skills such as running, catching and dodging.

1E & 2E

My Bag of Tricks for Making Dances

Ciarán Gray

The workshop will attempt to give participants a hands (and feet) on experience of some of the simple activities I use again and again to help children create dances. We will use as many as possible in the hour and try to combine them into one dance piece, with hopefully a laugh or two along the way.

3E & 4E

Órdóga suas nó síos- Assessment for learning and FMS'

Fearghal Ó Laighin

Marino Institute of Education

This bilingual session will explore children's fundamental movement skills (FMS) and the importance of developing these skills at a young age. Assessment for learning (AfL), as a teaching and learning approach in developing children's FMS, will be investigated with particular emphasis on féinmheasúnú agus piarmheasúnú. Bígí linn!
